

Keeping your child safe-
A Guide to Resources for parents and guardians.

Inform others and help the fight against child sexual exploitation.

www.cybertipline.com/

Learning activities for parents and children about on-line safety

www.netsmartz.org/netparents.htm

Internet Safety Helpdesk

www.netsmartz411.org/

WiredKids is designed to teach kids how to surf safely and how to have fun doing it.

www.wiredkids.org/index.html

Free non-technical cyber security and safety resources for the public.

www.staysafeonline.org/

OnGuardOnline.gov provides practical tips to help you be on guard against Internet fraud, computer security, and protection of your personal information.

<http://onguardonline.gov/index.html>

Forum for parents, teens, educators, and experts to discuss and learn about safe blogging and social networking.

www.blogsafety.com

Think about your Safety when posting video on-line.

<http://safekids.com/your-familys-privacy/>

Use an "Internet Safety Pledge" to promote safety, discussion and create safer boundaries.

www.netsmartz.org/resources/pledge.htm

Do I really need monitoring software for my computer?

www.monitoringsoftwarereviews.org/need.html

These sites we have given you are just a sample of sites on the internet that can help you protect your family. If you need more information regarding any topic feel free to contact our school. Our number one commitment is to the safety of our students.

Keeping your child safe-
A Guide to Resources for parents and guardians.

Inform others and help the fight against child sexual exploitation.

www.cybertipline.com/

Learning activities for parents and children about on-line safety

www.netsmartz.org/netparents.htm

Internet Safety Helpdesk

www.netsmartz411.org/

WiredKids is designed to teach kids how to surf safely and how to have fun doing it.

www.wiredkids.org/index.html

Free non-technical cyber security and safety resources for the public.

www.staysafeonline.org/

OnGuardOnline.gov provides practical tips to help you be on guard against Internet fraud, computer security, and protection of your personal information.

<http://onguardonline.gov/index.html>

Forum for parents, teens, educators, and experts to discuss and learn about safe blogging and social networking.

www.blogsafety.com

Think about your Safety when posting video on-line.

<http://safekids.com/your-familys-privacy/>

Use an "Internet Safety Pledge" to promote safety, discussion and create safer boundaries.

www.netsmartz.org/resources/pledge.htm

Do I really need monitoring software for my computer?

www.monitoringsoftwarereviews.org/need.html

These sites we have given you are just a sample of sites on the internet that can help you protect your family. If you need more information regarding any topic feel free to contact our school. Our number one commitment is to the safety of our students.

Keeping your child safe-
A Guide to Resources for parents and guardians.

Inform others and help the fight against child sexual exploitation.

www.cybertipline.com/

Learning activities for parents and children about on-line safety

www.netsmartz.org/netparents.htm

Internet Safety Helpdesk

www.netsmartz411.org/

WiredKids is designed to teach kids how to surf safely and how to have fun doing it.

www.wiredkids.org/index.html

Free non-technical cyber security and safety resources for the public.

www.staysafeonline.org/

OnGuardOnline.gov provides practical tips to help you be on guard against Internet fraud, computer security, and protection of your personal information.

<http://onguardonline.gov/index.html>

Forum for parents, teens, educators, and experts to discuss and learn about safe blogging and social networking.

www.blogsafety.com

Think about your Safety when posting video on-line.

<http://safekids.com/your-familys-privacy/>

Use an "Internet Safety Pledge" to promote safety, discussion and create safer boundaries.

www.netsmartz.org/resources/pledge.htm

Do I really need monitoring software for my computer?

www.monitoringsoftwarereviews.org/need.html

These sites we have given you are just a sample of sites on the internet that can help you protect your family. If you need more information regarding any topic feel free to contact our school. Our number one commitment is to the safety of our students.